WAR CAN'T SLACKEN
GEN, JOFFRE'S PACE

The general-in-chief begins to receive reports from his staff officers bestwen 5 and 6 o'clock in the morning.

General Joffre on sliting down at his work table finds a single street of paper on which are noted the latest news of the situation of the French and German armies received during the maint. There is no inkatand on the table, for the general writes very little, and no telephone, an instrument than the detects and never news except by proxy. There is no complicated act of calored craying, lowerer, with which the general with his own band marks changes in the attuation of the irrubes upon the major.

The awfulness of Europe's war-surpassing the wildest imagination - brings home to every American what a really wonderful country we live in. Our little labor and political issues fade into insignificance with Europe's tremendous trouble.

And did you ever stop to think that it is our wonderful security and assurance of peace that gives the wonderful riches, comforts and luxuries that every American citizen enjoys? We do not pay taxes for cannons, armies, fleets and monarchies.
